UTAH COPPER TO GET NEVADA CONSOLIDATED

It Has for All Practical Purposes Secured Control of the Big Nevada Copper Producer.

There is now but little doubt but what the Nevada Consolidated Copper property at Ely will eventually pass into the hands of the Utah Copper company, despite the protests of James H. Phillips, president of the Nevada company, and his efforts to thwart the deal. According to a dispatch received this morning by James A. Pollock & Co., president of the Nevada company, the Utah Copper company has secured control of the Nevada Consolidated Copper property at Ely. The Utah Copper company has secured control of the Nevada Consolidated Copper property at Ely. The Utah Copper company has secured control of the Nevada Consolidated Copper property at Ely.

The consolidation means that in many ways the Nevada Consolidated can be worked to greater advantage than it can under the present management. The consolidation will mean a reorganization of the system of management of the Nevada company. One management will be responsible and the affairs of the company can therefore be put through with greater despatch than before.

With the consolidation of the Nevada Consolidated and the Utah Copper Consolidated under the Utah Copper management, the company will within two years be handling better than 30,000 tons of ore a day.

The Nevada Consolidated Copper property is now shipping 7,500 tons of ore a day to the concentrator. The Utah Copper is treating 10,000 tons of ore a day. The Nevada Consolidated is treating 2,500 tons of ore a day. This makes a total of 20,000 tons a day. Before the summer is over the Nevada Consolidated will be enlarged and able to handle close to 10,000 tons of ore a day. Within the next three or four months the Utah Copper will be decided upon. The Utah Copper will be decided upon.

MARKET IS FRIENDLESS.

Opohongo Registers Big Gain—Trading Is Very Light.

Trading on the local exchange was very light this morning. Apparently all the supporters of the Nevada Consolidated have deserted the board and the market is friendless. The professional speculators have been unable to change the market. There was little of interest and prices remained unchanged, except that in several Tintic securities the prices were slightly off.

Opohongo was the star performer. It was not a heavy seller but the price showed the most activity. In the past two weeks it has gone up 100 per cent. Two weeks ago the stock was high at 23 cents, but this morning it was at 23 cents and only a small amount of the stock could be secured at the price. Developments at the mine it is declared fully warrant the price.

Cedar Tailman was slightly stronger. Colorado, Iron Blossom and Sioux were slightly off on the local market while in the east they were unchanged. The total number of shares that crossed the rail this morning was 20,800 and the amount paid out for the securities was $9,855.50.

On the curb market Opex was again a tugging favorite.
